Travelling Chef January Newsletter 09

Wow, what happened to 2008?

Just a brief catch up this month as I am currently in St Moritz, Switzerland, with clients. Although I haven't had the time to put together a recipe of the month I have attached a few photos of my travels.

I now have a link to my Sushi making classes on the cookery class page of my website, http://tyronepower-personalchef.com/cookery_classes.htm, whether it is a corporate team building event or group of friends looking for a fun day out I can tailor a package to suit all requirements. Please contact me on 07920 066 075 or email tyrone@tyronepower-personalchef.com for more information.

Also coming up in January; I will be working with Averys of Bristol on the 22nd of Jan, matching food to wine in their cellars. This month we will be tasting wines from Spain and I will be accompanying them with tapas from various regions of the country. For more information phone the team at Averys on 0117 921 4146.

Thank you for your continued support and I look forward to working with you all in 2009.

Regards
Ty
